European Journal of Innovation Management

Author/s: Researchers	Country of origin: South Africa
Target group: Researchers, Managers	Character of the source: Literature review

Journal Review:
It is a Journal published by Emerald. The subject of innovation is receiving increased interest both from companies because of their increased awareness of the impact of innovation in determining market success and also from the research community. Academics are increasingly beginning to place innovation as a priority area in their research agenda. This impetus has been partly fuelled by the Economic & Social Research Council (ESRC) who have designated innovation as one of nine research areas in their research initiative schemes. The journal aims to be a European forum for disseminating vital information and knowledge in the field of innovation. It publishes high quality papers written by both academics and industrialists which capture leading edge developments, both in practice and theory.

The Academy of Management Journal

Author/s: Researchers	Country of origin:
Target group: Researchers, Managers	Character of the source: Research paper

Journal Review: It is a Journal published by ACM. The Academy of Management Journal presents cutting edge research that provides readers with a forecast for new management thoughts and techniques. All articles published in the journal must make a strong empirical and/or theoretical contribution. All empirical methods including (but not limited to) qualitative, quantitative, or combination methods are represented. Articles published in the journal are clearly relevant to management theory and practice and identify both a compelling practical management issue and a strong theoretical framework for addressing it. For more than 40 years the journal has been recognized as indispensable reading for management scholars. The journal has been cited in such forums as The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, The Economist and The Washington Post. The journal is published six times per year with a circulation of 15,000.
